Mr. Kevin Huskins

Madison County Schools enthusiastically welcomes Mr. Kevin Huskins to our system. Mr. Huskins was unanimously approved by our school board to be the principal at Madison High School. Mr. Huskins is a lifelong educator with 23 years of experience in education. For the past 10 years he has served as the principal of Mountain Heritage High School. Kevin has a student centered vision with an emphasis on fairness, communication and developing a trustworthy learning environment. He stated, “I believe in being honorable to my students and staff and I will follow up on my word.” Mr. Huskins proudly shared that his most important duties will always be that he is a husband, dad, and Deacon of his church.

Dr. Hoffman stated, “Madison County Schools is excited to welcome Kevin Huskins as the new principal of Madison High School. He brings a wealth of experience and positive energy to our school system as well as a strong focus on student achievement. The interview committee, comprised of teachers, school administrators and district administrators were very impressed with Mr. Huskins and feel that he is a great fit for Madison High School. As superintendent, he has my complete support.”

Mr. Huskins stated, “It has always been my belief that education is a foundational piece of opportunity in life. Our young people deserve our best efforts in providing them every possibility to be successful. It is my hope and desire to bring my experience to a great school filled with great people so that we can work toward a common goal of giving each student hope filled with these possibilities. I look forward to working closely with the faculty, staff, students, parents and community of Madison High School.”
